HOUSE TO HOUSE COLLECTIONS REGULATIONS
1947 (AS AMENDED)

The above Act and the Regulations made thereunder contain important provisions for the regulations of house to house collections for charitable purposes, and prescribe fines and/or imprisonment for offences against the Act or the Regulations.

1. Except in the cases specified in Paragraphs 3 and 4, no collection in any locality for a charitable purpose may be made unless the promoter is licensed by the Licensing Authority for the area comprising that locality, and the collectors are authorised by the promoter.
2. Application for a licence must be made in the prescribed manner. The Licensing Authority cannot grant a licence for a period longer than twelve months and may refuse a licence, or where granted, may revoke it, in circumstances specified in the Act. There is a right of appeal to the Secretary of State against the refusal or the revocation of a licence, within 14 days from the date on which notice is given of the refusal or the revocation.
3. Where the Secretary of State is satisfied that a person pursues a charitable purpose throughout the whole, or substantial part, of England and Wales, and is desirous of promoting collections for that purpose, the Secretary of State may by order direct, in effect, that such person shall be exempt from the requirement to obtain licences from the Licensing Authority, as respects all collections for that purpose in such localities as may be described in the order.
4. If the Chief Constable for the police area comprising a locality in which a collection for a charitable purpose is being, or proposed to be, made is satisfied that the purpose is local in character, and that the collection is likely to be completed within a short period, he may grant to the person who appears to him to be principally concerned in the promotion of the collection a certificate in the prescribed form; and where a certificate is so granted, a licence from the Licensing Authority is not required, and the provisions of the regulations (as to which see paragraph 5 below) shall not apply to a collection made in conformity with such certificate.

5. Regulations have been made by the Secretary of State under the Act. The regulations include the following, amongst other provisions:
 - (a) Every promoter of a collection must exercise all due diligence to secure that persons authorised to act as collectors are fit and proper persons; and to secure compliance by collectors with regulations
 - (b) No promoter of a collection shall permit any person to act as a collector unless he has issued to that person:
 - (i) a prescribed certificate of authority
 - (ii) a prescribed badge; and
 - (iii) If money is to be collected, a collecting box marked, or a receipt book (with receipts and counterfoils or duplicates consecutively numbered) marked on every receipt, with a general indication of the purpose of the collection, and a distinguishing number.
 - (c) In the case of a collection in respect of which a Licence has been granted, every prescribed Certificate of Authority shall be given on a form obtained from HM Stationery Office, and every prescribed badge shall be so obtained.
 - (d) No person under the age of 16 years shall act or be authorised to act as a collector of money.
 - (e) No collector shall importune any person to the annoyance of such person, or remain in, or at the door of, any house if requested to leave by any occupant thereof.
 - (f) The promoter of a collection must, within one month of the expiry of the licence, furnish an account of the collection in the form prescribed to the Licensing Authority or the Secretary of State, as the case may be.
6. Charitable purpose means any charitable, benevolent or philanthropic purpose. Collection means an appeal to the public, made by means of visits from house to house, to give, whether for consideration or not, money or other property, and collector means a person who makes the appeal in the court of such visits. House includes a place of business. Proceeds means, in relation to a collection, all money and all other property given, whether for consideration or not, in response to the appeal. Promoter means a person who causes other to act as collectors for the purposes of the collection.
7. For further information, reference should be made to the Act and regulations which are obtainable from HM Stationery Office, or through any bookseller.
