

THREE OF THE 'BEST'

Careers Websites that suit different Learning Styles

Whether you want to find out more about a job option, or need help identifying what job options are open to you, there are lots of resources available that you can use at home.

We know that people can prefer to learn and find out information in three main different ways. Here are some of the Careers Websites our Careers Advisers use with their students that suit these different styles.

Visual (i.e. Reading)

Start profile: www.startprofile.com

Visit E-Clips: www.eclips-online.co.uk

(Email island.futures@iow.gov.uk for your schools password)

Explore careers: www.nationalcareers.service.gov.uk

Audio (i.e. Watching / Listening)

Explore Careers: www.icould.com/explore/

Visit: www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/careers

Visit: www.youtube.com (try channels like Careers Box or Health Careers)

Kinesthetic (i.e. Doing Activities)

www.careerpilot.org.uk

www.sacu-student.com (Spartan Test)
