Volunteer with Mountbatten

Retail volunteer

Mountbatten retail volunteer

One shift per week,
around four hours (or more, if desired)

Mountbatten has shops in locations across the Island where donations are sorted and prepared ready for sale. Our retail team are a vital part of raising the funds we need every year to run our services.

Things you might be involved in:

- Receiving donations, stock sorting and replenishment
- Merchandising stock and window dressing
- Serving customers using the till
- Handling cash and card transactions
- Being an ambassador for Mountbatten in the local community and answering questions about our work

Full training and ongoing support will be given.

As a retail volunteer, you will:

- Work with a supportive team
- Help raise money to support people in your local community
- Develop skills which will enhance your CV
- Meet new people and make new friends

You would need to:

- Be friendly, positive, and caring
- Be physically fit and well enough to operate in a retail or warehouse environment
- Enjoy meeting and talking to people

For more information, phone 01983 217304 or email voluntary.services@mountbatten.org.uk
