
SOLENT ARMED FORCES COVENANT PARTNERSHIP DROP IN CENTRES

There are drop in centres across the region offering advice and information to armed forces veterans and their families. They provide social support and access to a range of welfare and mental health services. They're open to former members of the British Armed Forces and Reserves and their direct family members, including the Royal Fleet Auxiliary and the Merchant Navy. These drop-in centres are members of the Association of ex-Service Drop-In Centres (ASDIC).
